perspective is grounded in history's disciplinary distinctiveness and a vision for its purpose in students' education. The authors of secondary history in action articulate practical approaches to history curriculum design, ways to teach disciplinary history in the classroom, and methods to assess students' knowledge and understanding. They draw together recent research and established traditions in history teaching discourse in a coherent summary that will be helpful to trainee and beginning teachers, non-specialist teachers of history, subject leaders, and senior leaders/line managing history departments.
